

Ralph O. Jones

January 7, 2013

Ralph O. Jones, affectionately known as “Pat”, was born in a log cabin in Morgan Township, Okeana, Ohio on June 8, 1918. He departed his earthly home and went to his heavenly home on January 7, 2013. Pat was a very gentle, kind and loving husband, father, brother, grandfather and great grandfather. He loved to dance to the “Big Band Music” and he met his future wife at the “Y” dances. Pat and Dorothy L. Fried were married on September 22, 1945 in Zion Evangelical Lutheran Church, by the late Reverend Karl A. Mueller. They were blessed with 67 years of marriage. Pat joined the church after the marriage and was active in the church serving on church council and as a “faithful usher” for many years. In earlier years Pat worked for farmers in the area and later farmed with his Dad. He worked for Fisher Body (GMC) as a press operator retiring in “1980” after 30 ½ years of service. He was a lover of nature and the woods, enjoying hunting with his “boys”. They had many happy times hunting deer and turkey. Dorothy and Pat were blessed with four sons. Survivors include: wife; Dorothy L. Jones; brother, Harry C. Jones and sons; Paul R. Jones (Diane) of Bath, IN , Thomas K. Jones of Camden, OH, Todd F. Jones (Beverly) of Vevay, IN and Timothy S. Jones of Vienna, OH; grandchildren, Kimberly D. Cooper (Scott), Christina R. Clark (Jason), Lisa M. Jackson (Jeremy), Julie L. Eori (Sean), Timothy S. Jones Jr. (Kayla) and Erica N.
