“ His regular phone calls cheered us up and we got to be silly together. I think that the thing I will remember the most is how much he liked to laugh. He was always concerned how we both were doing and always sincerely asked. Rick made sure he said "I love you" when we finished a call. He will be very much missed. We extend our deepest sympathy to all his family, whom he held very dear. Rest in peace King Richard.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Rick. He was a mentor to me even after we went our separate ways when the company we worked for forced us both into making decisions that would ultimately separate us. However, Rick ever being the "chess player" was already steps ahead of this decision and already prepared. That was Rick though, he wouldn't go into a situation without being fully prepared. Rick practiced that not only in business but in all aspects of life. He will forever be my friend. Rest in Peace "Lil Heavy".
