“ We are sorry we did not get to know this man. But we've known Hilda for about 45 years and can attest that she would only choose the best to share her life. The testimonies from his family and friends yesterday, confirmed that. The memorial service yesterday was a beautiful testimony to Rob. I don't know how Kyle was able to deliver such a wonderful tribute to his father, but it was amazing. The conclusion, with the Vince Gill song that he wrote to say good bye to his brother, was the perfect ending.

We wish the family peace, prayers for healing, and comfort in the memories. Maybe someday we will meet Rob!

“ I can't begin to explain the loss we have in our hearts. Rob was always more than a friend, he was a true man of character, honesty, loyalty, and generosity that will always be unable to be equaled by anyone I will ever meet. He was someone we not only looked up to and valued greatly in our lives, but someone we felt by his example we should aspire to be like. I've always said from day one that this man was unlike any I'd met before, more like a real life Superman that came to the rescue of all. To say that Rob will be missed doesn't seem quite enough. The honor we feel to be blessed by all the years we have had the privilege of knowing Rob will never be able to be measured. We are so grateful and thankful to God for this privilege. Although we feel the loss on Earth, heaven has gained quite an angel, an angel who's lasting memories in our hearts will be with us until we see him again one day in Heaven . - Lisa Koger

“ I grew up in church with Rob and Hilda and pretty much their whole family. I loved each and every one of them. I remember we had a ladies and mens softball teams, playing volleyball etc. We had a lot of fun in those days. I always remember Rob enjoying playing sports and was good at everything he did. Rob also had a smile on his face every time I seen him. Those were some of the best years of my life, going to church with y'all. It was in that little ole church his daddy preached at that I found Jesus. My heart is broke because he's no longer here. Hilda I'm so very sorry for your loss, I can't imagine. I just can't imagine. My thoughts are with you Hilda and your family. It's been along time, but nevertheless I thought / think of you all a lot....actually mom and I were talking about you Hilda a couple weeks ago. Even tho so much time has passed, when people touch your hearts the way you guys did. Nothing can change that love, them good ole times. Not even time . Sending my love and prayers. R.I.P Rob. I know you had many loved ones waiting to see you. Esp that Angel that went on before you. I often stop at his grave when I go to the cemetery and i was always so sad. When I pass by next time , I can smile. Love all of you , Missy Holland Chamberlain
