

Robert "Hippy" Crook

May 10, 1954 - September 5, 2024

Robert "Hippy" Crook, aged 70, passed away on September 5, 2024, in his hometown of Hamilton, Ohio. Born on May 10, 1954, also in Hamilton to Gordon and Zella (nee Rudder) Crook. Robert graduated from Taft High School in 1972 and built a fulfilling career at Champion Paper and later at DCM. He was an avid hunter, fisherman and gun enthusiast, passions that brought him much joy throughout his life. Known for his profound generosity and kindness, Robert was described as the best husband, father, and grandfather anyone could ask for. His selflessness shone brightly, especially in his decision to become an organ donor, a gift that enabled two individuals to see for the first time. He leaves behind his loving wife and best friend of 40+ years, Sandra Lucas-Crook; daughter, Amanda Jones; granddaughters, Jaila and Miyla Jones; mother, Zella Carpenter; brother, Jimmy (Patricia) Crook; step-brother, Mike (Susan) Carpenter; step-sister, Terri (Claude) Angel; and several nieces and nephews. Robert was preceded in death by his father, Gordon Crook; step-father, Al Carpenter; grandparents Bryan and Farce Crook, James and Ida Rudder of London, Kentucky, and his wife, Terri Crook. A celebration of Robert's life will be held at the Michael J. Colligan Lodge in Hamilton, Ohio on Thursday, September 26 at 5pm. In lieu of flowers, please call someone you love and take them out to dinner. Life is short, tomorrow is not guaranteed. His life and legacy will continue to influence and inspire all who knew him.
