

Robert J. Turnbull

May 23, 2008

Robert J. TURNBULL, Age 88, of Hamilton died at Berkeley Health Care on Friday, May 23, 2008. He was born in Hamilton on February 21, 1920 the son of George R. and Vanessa W. Turnbull. Bob attended Miami University and Ohio State University where he was a member of Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity. He served as an officer in the United States Army in the 79th Division, 315th Infantry in Europe during WWII and was wounded in Germany. Bob married Elizabeth Ann Martin of Columbus, Ohio on October 14, 1943 in Memphis, Tennessee. He was employed as a Civil Engineer for the City of Columbus after WWII. In 1947, he moved to Hamilton to join the family business, Geo. R. Turnbull, Inc. He was a member of the Hamilton Rotary, The Presbyterian Church where he served as Deacon and Elder; Mayors Council and various community activities; and Ohio Ready Mix Concrete Association as Vice President and President. Bob is survived by his wife, Libby; daughter, Nancy Marie Turnbull and fiancé, Thomas Connors of Florida; son and daughter-in-law Robert M. and Niki L. Turnbull; grandchildren, Frances E. (Jonathan) Foster and Marie C. Turnbull all of Hamilton, Adam R. and David R. Bahgat of Columbus, Ohio; great grandchildren, Madison T. and Rosalie H. Foster of Hamilton. Funeral Service will be Tuesday, May 27, 2008 at 10:00 a.m. at Weigel Funeral Home, 980 NW Washington Blvd. with Rev. Dr. John Lewis officiating. Burial will be in Rose Hill Burial Park. Visitation will be Monday, May 26, 2008 from 6-8 p.m. Memorials may be directed to The Presbyterian Church, 23 S. Front St., Hamilton, OH 45011 or Colonial Foundation in care of Berkeley Square, 520 Eaton Avenue, Hamilton, OH 45013.