

Robert A. Fening Jr.

August 18, 2013

Robert A. (Bob) Fening Jr, age 70, a resident of Hamilton during childhood and retirement died Sunday, August 18, 2013. The lover of children and animals was born February 18, 1943 in Hamilton, the son of Robert and Monica (McDonough) Fening. He graduated from Hamilton Catholic High School in 1961 and University of Dayton in 1969 with an undergraduate and graduate degree in business and became a self-employed business man. He is survived by his mother, Monica, Hamilton; his children, Dana (Robert) Volkay, Morristown, New Jersey and Robert Fening, Nashville, Tennessee; his brother, James (Mary Lou) Fening, Hamilton; three sisters, Rosemary (Chris) Gebhart, Liberty Township, Bonnie Adams, Tipp City, Ohio and Molly (Robert) Boone, Manlius, New York and a grandson, Andrew Volkay. He is preceded by grandsons Zachary and Matthew Volkay and his father Robert Fening. A memorial mass will be held Thursday, August 22, 2013 at 10:30 a.m. at St. Peter in Chains Catholic Church, Liberty and Ridgelawn Avenues, Hamilton with Father Patrick McMullen officiating. Visitation will be Thursday from 9:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. at the church. Any donations should be made to the ASPCA (American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals) 1-800-628-0028 or Senior Independence (Hospice) 1001 Kingsmill Parkway, Columbus, OH 43229.