I was so sad to hear about Ron. I know he lead a good and honest life. He was a good worker and he enjoyed his job. I would see him every time mom was in the hospital and he would make time to see her every time. She was always so thrilled that he had taken time to visit her. I was his godmother and was glad that he became the man he did. I'm sure he will be missed by many. I offer my condolences to him many brothers and sisters as well as his work family. Fly high now Ron. Your mom and aunt Joann are waiting to greet you and show you around. What a great time to join heaven as we approach Easter. You will be missed!
