“ My dear friend I will miss you so. I know you are in a better place now. Roseann & I met in 7th grade & that day began our friendship. We had lots of sleepovers & walked to & from school everyday so many memories. In later years we would go dancing at a country bar every other weekend. 9 years ago I retired to Florida. Once a year RoseAnn came down to swim, chat, & of course wineries. Prayer to Mark, Angela, Megan, Brittany & family to get you through this loss. Hugs to all! Love Hyla❤️

“ Roseann, Betsy Mullen and Hyla Smith and I had a lot of fun together in high school, which turned out to be lifelong friendships. Our favorite night was Strawberry Boones Farm wine and Swisher sweet cigars in Betsy’s car. I think it was Betsy’s car, but it’s been a long time since then! My favorite memory of Roseann and Mark was the day they married in our backyard. Her birthday and our daughter; Kelly’s birthday is on the same day so we always tried to celebrate them together. It was so very special and the pictures tell it all. I will miss Roseann so much, but am glad that she is at peace now with our Lord. Rest in peace my good friend.
