“ Rosie was a delight in our Bible study and chapel services. I will miss singing "In the Garden" with her at chapel.

What a great life with Ralph in Bensenville. What a great Zion Evangelical Lutheran Church with so many friends. What great new friends in Ohio who you had to show how to win at Bingo! What two great daughters! Always fun, always funny. I'll miss you Rosie, but that was a life well lived. See you and Ralph in Heaven!

We had our first church service without Rosie today. She is missed. Rosie was such a delight, and such an encouragement. She loved the Lord, and we know she was ready to go home to the Him. Knowing she is in the arms of Jesus and surround by her loved ones gone before her is a sweet blessing, and reminder of the Father's promises. Rosie is loved and missed.
