“ Sister Sandy. She was my great-aunt by marriage. Yet she always treated me like I was her own. She had one of the most beautiful smiles and the cutest giggle. She passed down both to her daughters and grand-daughters.

She was a true woman of God. She never wavered in her devotion to Him. She was strong, yet soft. Firm, yet so kind.

I will always treasure memories of digging in her garden with her, asking her advice on little things, and seeing the twinkle in her eyes when she turned and watched one of my girls acting ornery in church.

So many times, when I had a prayer request on my heart, she was one that I could text and just ask her to pray - and I knew she would without ever asking any questions.

I am honored to have grown up under the shadow of her influence. I know without a doubt that she made Heaven.

I will never forget her.
