“Mrs. Krause was my 2nd grade teacher at Wayne School (1962?). I thought she was the most beautiful teacher in the school. She was kind and loving to the entire class.

“ My memories of Sherry are around Edgewood football and working with her and others at the school preparing food for the players. Several of us sat together at the games and went out to eat after. We proudly wore our “Cave Mom” t-shirts and cheered loudly for our boys. I loved her laugh, she will be missed. Much love to Eric and family from Sharon and Keith Barger.
