“ Sherry was like a mother to me. I loved her famous oatmeal chocolate chip cookies, strawberry rhubarb pie and Spanish rice just to name a few. I will always remember Sherry in her garden, walking every where or her just sitting at the table with a cup of coffee in her hand. I am so grateful to have seen her for the last time when she came and had lunch with Christa and I at the Cozy cottage. She looked so beautiful and seemed to be feeling better. I thank God for having Sherry in my life. I will always love her.

*Sincerely,
Angela Fishwick*
