“ Met Stanley while he was attending Miami University. Also, known to me as "Creeper" all in a good sense. He was also a very philosophical, intellectual, soul who was considerate of all who knew him. My last real interaction with him occurred during our "road trip" to celebrate Billy Campbells Birthday, with Curt Wright at his cabin in Somerset, Ky about 9yrs ago. Needless to say "A good time was had by all". He will truly be missed by all who loved him.
