“ Steve, we shared many laughs through the years! I'll never forget the talks we had. You whipped my butt on the golf course but always in a way that made me somehow feel good about it?? Funny! You treated my daughter Sydney great and I will never forget that. I only had 10 or 11 years with you in my life but you made an impact I'll never forget! May you rest in peace buddy!

This photo of us always cracks me up!

“ BoBo. I remember you, buddy. It was an honor and a blast to work with you. Many times I passed over your head in 501/504 crane as I was making my way to charge a furnace. Often wondered what had happened to you and the rest of the people that I had the privilege and honor to work with and work for. God speed, my friend. Catch you on the other side.

“ Having grown up with only a sister, I was blessed when marrying into the STRONG family to inherit brothers-in-law who were sweet; kind; gentle; and loving. I will greatly miss Steve but am glad to have known him for almost 29 years. He will never be forgotten and will always be thought of fondly.

I live next door to Steve what great neighbor. I would like to play golf with him but never had the chance. I've only lived here 4 years you could not have better neighbors.
