“ I have worked with Teresa for the last 8 years. I will miss her a lot. She was always smiling and she was very thoughtful. Everyone knows I love cats and penguins and some days she would just show up with something cat or penguin for me. Whether it was a Penguin cookie jar or a little black cat eraser. I will now treasure those gifts and I was glad that I got to be her Secret Santa this past year and that she loved her gifts. I am grateful that I got to know her. So sorry for the loss to family and those of us that thought of her as "a friend."

Teresa and I were 4-H friends, years ago. We laughed a lot, really laughed a lot, at 4-H camp and at the county fair. She called me a few years ago when she was back in Hamilton, her laughing, cheerful voice was still the same - years vanished. So sorry for your loss; she was a positive person!

“ *My sincerest condolences to Teresa's family and many friends from Reily High School. Teresa was always a great friend to anyone who has met her. I rode the same school bus with her and I will never forget her beautiful smile. I last met Teresa at Wendy's she was with Donald Stitzel. Prayers for Teresa and her family and friends.
