“ I have known Theresa since I was a young girl, you married my brother and I gained another sister. I remember spending the night at your house and it was so fun doing makeovers, crafts, cooking, watching movies. Then I had girls, and you did the same with them. My heart swelled so much when they told me how much they loved going to your house. I remember going on vacation with you and Gary, how you didn't treat me as the pesky little sister! I learned so much from you. Tomorrow will be so hard for so many. You were such a great wife, mom, grandmother, aunt, friend, coworker and many more things. You loved with your whole heart and it was your heart that took you away. I know that you are in heaven with the loved ones that we have lost and are celebrating big! We will celebrate tomorrow for you. Keep watching over us and we will take care of the ones you left here. See you later "TT". Love Jackie A.

“ You always told me that you felt like I was more of a sister to you than an in-law. We welcomed you into our family more than 45 years ago and you embraced all of us. We endured the usual family ups and downs. We celebrated weddings, graduations, births of new additions that has made this family grow immensely, holidays and family dinners. We also endured losing family members, sickness and some hard times. Being the close knit family that we are, we got through it. Your passing has left us stunned, shattered and in disbelief. My heart breaks for your granddaughters...they were the lights of your life. You have left a hole in my heart that will not be healed. We'll carry on here as best as we know how..it won't be easy. Watch over us..guide us..send down some signs. I take comfort in knowing that you did not suffer. You have suffered through enough the past 2 years dealing with cancer and chemo. Gather all of those who have left us way too soon..celebrate at the pearly gates! Fly high lady! I will not say “good-bye”...I will say “I will see you later”.❤️❤️🙏

“ Gary and family: I am so sorry for your loss. My late husband, Tim James was in your wedding and I was there as well. You and Tim had such good times together. I have been where you are right now and felt like you feel. Prayers and love. Pamela James

“ I've known Theresa since we both became grandmothers to Evelyn almost 8 years ago now. Theresa is in her element when she is in the grandmother role. She loves nothing more than being with Evelyn and planning sleepovers, spa days, craft days and all kinds of games and activities that just the two of them would do. She would talk to anyone who would listen about her granddaughter and how special she was. Just eight weeks ago she was given the most precious gift of a new granddaughter, Georgia. She was so excited about that and she was going to start taking care of her in two weeks when Rachel returned to work. She was really looking forward to that she just said last week how nice it would be to have a baby in the house again. I know she would've planned some really fun activities for those granddaughters of hers. She was a very special person and a wonderful grandmother and she will be missed by all. Thank you for sharing our grandmother activities with me. I will miss you.
