“ My earliest memories of Tim are from the years we shared together at St Peter in Chains school. He was always smiling and fun to be around. I remember being so envious of him because we used to go to Mass every day before school and if you took communion, you did not eat breakfast beforehand and were allowed to bring breakfast to eat in your classroom after mass. I typically had a boring banana or peanut butter and jelly sandwich from home but Tim always had these amazing fresh cinnamon rolls that he would buy on the way to school at a bakery near our school. Rest in peace Tim.
