May 18, 2006

Trudy A. TEGGE, Age 59, of Hamilton, died Thursday, May 18, 2006 at 7:40am at Good Samaritan Hospital in Cincinnati. She was born in Hamilton on April 15, 1947, the daughter of Robert Lewis and Colleen (McMacken) Engle. She graduated from Taft High School in 1965. She married Richard J. Tegge on October 15, 1966 in Hamilton. She was a member of First United Methodist Church. An avid gardener, accomplished quilter, talented decorator, detailed doll house designer, inventive web site creator, she excelled at any new hobby she tried. She most recently began clogging lessons, which she thoroughly enjoyed doing with her granddaughters. Passionate about antiques, Trudy held a particular talent for restoring old wood. She, along with her husband, Dick, could always be counted on to help friends and family with their latest home improvement ventures. For nearly 10 years, she worked with her dear friend, the late Sherry Corbett, to restore dozens of homes in Hamilton. Her greatest joy in life was her grandchildren. Her favorite gift to each of them when they were born was a hand sewn baby quilt. She would say "each stitch is a kiss from Nana." She spent many hours at their sporting, dance and music events, beaming with pride at all of their accomplishments. She is survived by her mother, Colleen Engle; her devoted husband of 39 ½ years, Richard Joseph Tegge; three children, Lori Daniels and husband John, Lisa Reid and husband Daniel, Rob Tegge and wife Kara; nine grandchildren, Trace Fowler, Kaleb and Kurtis Reid, Haleigh and Kenton Daniels, Jessica, Julia, Jenna and Jada Tegge; mother-in-law Bernadine Tegge and a special niece Kristin Anderson and husband Marty. She was preceded in death by her father, Robert Lewis Engle; her sister, Marcia Kay McKillican, fathers-in-law Neil Tegge and John Tegge, and grandsons Joseph and Justin Tegge. Funeral services will be held at 11am Monday, May 22 at Weigel Funeral Home, 980 N.W. Washington Blvd., with Rev. Kenn Barton officiating. Visitation will be on Sunday, May 21 from 2-6 at the funeral home. The family wishes to express heartfelt thanks to the Stroke Team members of Good Samaritan Hospital.
