“ *When we were kids my sister Jane and brother John and I would go to Lafayette to visit cousins Virginia, Shirley and grandma during summer vacation. On hot summer evenings Uncle Charlie would take us all for a ride in his Chevy to cool off. During our ride we would stop for a "frozen custard". Often cousin Lois and Aunt Esther were there visiting also. Jane and I have fond memories of summer vacations visiting Uncle Charlie and family. Virginia and Dick visited us in Florida and we always enjoyed seeing them. We will miss them. Pete enjoyed talking to Nathan about their experiences in Korea. (Pete's visit there was 50 years before Nathan's). I am so sorry for your loss this year. It is unfortunate we live so far apart and it is impossible for us to attend the funeral.
