

Virginia May Witmer

June 8, 2006

Virginia May WITMER, Age 74, went to be with the Lord, Thursday, June 8, 2006 at 2:45 p.m. in Mercy Hospital, Fairfield. She is survived by her husband, Rev. George Witmer and their son, David. Virginia was an Ordained Elder in the Somerville Presbyterian Church and assisted her husband when they took Holy Communion to shut-ins. Over the years, Virginia served on several committees and was president of different sewing groups. Virginia's dream, as a young girl, was to be a Missionary to China. Her greatest joy was receiving a "special" degree from Anderson School of Theology in Anderson, Indiana the same year her husband, George, received his Master of Divinity degree from Anderson School of Theology. Funeral services will be held Monday, June 12, 2006 at 11 a.m. at Weigel Funeral Home, 980 N. W. Washington Blvd with Dr. John Lewis, Senior Pastor of The Presbyterian Church, officiating and Geraldine Ehresman organist. Burial will be in Greenwood Cemetery. Visitation will be Monday morning from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. at the funeral home. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be directed to Somerville Presbyterian Church, P. O. Box 166, Somerville, Ohio 45064. A special thanks to the many nurses who took such good care of Virginia, in such a compassionate and caring way and to Susan McMurray, "Cassie" and Chaplain Linda Savelli, who brought such comfort and encouragement to the family.
