

William C. Mogk Jr.

June 13, 2014

Vivian and William Mogk both former residents of the Knolls of Oxford, William C. Mogk, Jr. (February 17, 1918 - June 13, 2014, his wife, Vivian Shay Mogk (March 7, 1921 - March 1, 2012), have joined their heavenly father. Vivian and William were born and raised in Brooklyn, New York; were high school sweethearts at Adelphi Academy and were married for 74 years. William graduated from Cornell University, where he lettered in three sports, football, basketball and baseball. He was a WWII veteran of the U. S. Navy, stationed in Guam. William was employed as National Sales Manager for Clairol. Later they returned to Oxford and were involved in the business community, retiring in 1980. After retirement, they lived in North Carolina, Florida and Georgia, returning to Oxford in 2005. Both enjoyed traveling, golf, bridge and being with their family. They are survived by their children, Patricia Vivian (Ron) Sixt, Oxford, William C., III (Marilyn) Mogk, Atlanta and John A. Mogk, Dallas; grandchildren, Barbara Brewer (Bob) Clark, Savannah, Glenn R. (Tracy) Brewer, Hamilton, John Mogk, Casey Mogk and Will Mogk, Dallas; step grandchildren - Ronnie Sixt, Todd Sixt and Jeff Zieler; great grandchildren, Trisha Miller Blake, Tara Miller Waywood, Caitlin Brewer-McCoy, Connor Brewer and Nick Zeiler and great-great grandchildren, Ethan, Wyatt, Aubrey, Vivian and Grace. Services will be held June 28, 2014 at Spring Grove Cemetery, Cincinnati.