“ My heart is broken with yours. I think about all the beautiful kindness of your dad and grandfather. He was very special and I recalled just yesterday how a couple years ago he got out his snowblower and plowed down on both sides of our block on Cleveland to help his neighbors..just the kind of man he was. When he would come back from Christmas dinner with the family he would be sure to bring me a few sweets on a little plate! I miss him..he was one in a zillion! God bless you all, Bill's next door neighbor, Sharon Hammond
