“ She was my 5th grade teacher. I loved it when she read books to our class a chapter a day. She was a great teacher, stern at times but a great teacher, one you would never forget.

“ Oh my goodness, she was my 5th grade teacher and I loved her. She was the person that sparked my interest in reading books. She would read a chapter a day to us in class and I really enjoyed that. I would get lost in those stories and not want them to end. Such a loss. My condolences to her family.

“ One of our favorite neighbor's growing up. Her mother Sally would want to see me when I would come home from the Air Force but would hide because she didn't like to say goodbye. Zetta was so special to our Mom after Dad died, She was the best. My heart is broken.

Just heard this evening that dear Zetta Ann had passed away. A beloved neighbor for many years. We were more like family enduring sorrow and exalting joy and always with lots of love and care. My Mother and Del would tease each other mercilessly. Mom hid in the shrubs when Del arrived home from work in a designer suit and soaked him with the garden hose. He got even a bit later aiming the hose through her kitchen window as she washed dishes. Zetta shook her head and laughed. Loved her.
